Moonbot Day

On behalf of the City of Shreveport, Mayor Cedric Glover declared Friday February 24th 2012 “Moonbot Studios Day”.

And the Oscar Goes To...

Directors William Joyce and Brandon Oldenburg accepting the Academy Award® for “The Fantastic Flying Books of Mr. Morris Lessmore”.

Oscar® Night: Shreveport

In Shreveport, Marilynn’s Place, Chef Robert Baucum rolled out the red carpet for a special Moonbot Oscars viewing party. Crab claws, prime rib, and an open bar work wonders to soothe frazzled anticipatory nerves!

Ticker Tape Parade
Monday March 5th marked the second time in history that a Ticker Tape Parade was held in downtown Shreveport. The three block long procession down Texas Street included William Joyce’s alma mater C.E Byrd high school’s marching band, convertibles carrying Bill and son Jack, Brandon, Lampton, and Trish, and the Moonbot float filled with Bots tossing Moonbot Moopies and streamers into the crowd.

The event was sponsored by the City of Shreveport, Caddo Parish, SPAR, SRAC, DDA, Robinson Film Center, Shreveport-Bossier Film Office, Biomedical Research Foundation of NWLA, Shreveport-Bossier Convention & Tourism Bureau, Blade Studios, CRM Studios, Williams Creative Group, C.E Byrd Marching Band, and Centenary College. For video coverage of the day’s festivities, see KSLA News.

Lunar Activities

In non-Oscars news, we enjoyed Bill Plympton’s visit which included...
Marilynn's Place after-party.

Highland Parade

The Krewe of Highland Parade rolled on a beautiful Sunday afternoon in February. Riders on the Moonbot float donned Dickies coveralls and tossed beads into the crowd.
